THE PRODIGAL SON (1)

Cut out and put in order the speech bubbles to tell the story of The Prodigal Son. Draw pictures to match the speech bubbles.

Why is a party being held for him? You've never held one for me! I've worked all my life for you. I've never run away!

My lost son is on his way home! Bring new clothes and a ring. Kill the calf I was saving for a party.

I'm starving. I think I'll get a job feeding pigs on a farm.

My son has come back. I thought he was gone forever.

Dad, sell the farm so that I can spend the money that will be mine.

Drat! My money has all run out and my friends won't talk to me.

I'm having an awesome time going to lots of parties.

I still have hunger pains. My dad's servants get lots of food to eat. I think I'll go and work for him!

All right, I'll sell the half you would get when I pass away. Your brother will be here to help me out.
