Below are comments which could have been spoken by the King or by someone in Parliament in the 1640s.

1. Take two coloured pencils and shade in the words which you think could have been spoken by the King in one colour; and words which could have been spoken by someone in Parliament in the other colour.

I can rule without Parliament.

I do not need Parliament at this time.

We want more say in the running of the country.

I only answer to God.

If they do not behave in Parliament, I will get rid of it.

If he won't listen to us, why should we give him money?

2. The words above are written with old-fashioned letters. Here is the complete alphabet. Write your name on the line below using these letters.
